Washington State Declaration of Write-in Candidacy

how to file as a write-in candidate

when to file

All declarations of candidacy must be received by the filing officer before 8pm on election day. Declarations of candidacy received after this time and date, regardless of the postmark, are invalid.

where to file

- If the office sought is federal, statewide or is in a legislative, court of appeals, or superior court office that includes more than one county, file with the Secretary of State.

You may file in person, by mail, or online at www.vote.wa.gov.

- File with the County Elections department for all other offices. Contact the applicable department to learn if online filing is available.

cost to file

The filing fee is nonrefundable, even in the event of withdrawal.

If the declaration is filed 19+ days before the election, no filing fee is required.

If the declaration is filed 18 days or less before the election a fee will be required. The filing fee is based on the salary for that office at the time of filing. Filing fees or filing fee petitions must accompany the declaration of candidacy at the time of filing.

Candidates without sufficient assets or income to pay the filing fee may instead submit a filing fee petition that contains the valid signatures of registered voters equal to the dollar amount of the filing fee for the office.

voters' pamphlet

A statement and photograph will be published in the voters' guide and pamphlet for all candidates printed on the ballot.

The names of write-in candidates qualifying to be printed on the general electon ballot will be included in the voters' guide/ pamphlet.

Write-in candidates declaring for a primary should submit a voters' pamphlet statement and photograph when filing. Doing so will meet publication deadlines if the candidate continues on to the general election ballot.

other requirements:

public disclosure and campaign finance reporting with the Public Disclosure Commission

Reporting requirements are based on the office, campaign revenues and size of jurisdiction, and are outlined in the chart below. More information can be found at www.pdc.wa.gov.

type of jurisdiction and fundraising thresholds	public disclosure reporting requirements
• Federal districts	Federal Election Commission reporting
• Cemetery districts • Precinct committee officers • Districts requiring voters to own property	No state disclosure reporting
- District has less than 1,000 voters* and - Campaign does not expect to exceed $4,999 in contributions	No state disclosure reporting
- Office is less than entire county and - District has 1,000 to 4,999 voters* and - Campaign does not expect to exceed $4,999 in contributions	Form F–1 (Financial Affairs Statement)
• Office is county wide or larger • Jurisdiction has 5,000 or more voters • Campaign expects to receive $5,000 or more in contributions	Form F–1 (Financial Affairs Statement) C– series forms (Campaign Finance Reports)

Dear Betsy Elgar,

Thank you for your interest in participating in the 2020 presidential election as a write-in candidate. I am unable to accept your declaration because it is the wrong form. I am returning your form to you at this time.

In order to process your request, please complete and submit a Presidential Write-in Declaration of Candidacy (included) for you and your nominee for Vice-President.

In Washington State, the ballot links the office of President and Vice-President and includes the names of both candidates.

All write in declarations must be received in our office no later than November 3, 2020.

Sincerely,
